Donahue Signs For Five Years

Auburn Enters Agreement Whereby Popular Coach Will Handle Teams for Next Five Years

ATLANTA, Ala., Dec. 29.—That Auburn has absolutely pinned her faith to Mike J. Donahue is indicated by the announcement today that the popular coach and the athletic authorities have come to an agreement whereby Auburn athletic affairs shall continue in charge of Donahue for the next five years. Donahue came to Auburn in the fall of 1911, since which time he has been continuously head coach.

His record has been a splendid one. Auburn men throughout the south, as well as many other football fans, have come to regard him as one of the ablest, unassuming and cleanest sportsmen in the country. Donahue has received many flattering offers from all sections of the country, but his agreement to remain at Auburn is evidence of his faith in Auburn and his absolute satisfaction with the treatment which he has received at the hands of the authorities.

Donahue is a graduate of Yale university, where he took his degree with honor. He was recommended by the famous Walter Camp to Hon. William S. Williams, now a popular lawyer at Montgomery, Ala., who was sent eleven years ago by the Auburn authorities to the large eastern universities to secure a capable coach.

This announcement will be received with the greatest satisfaction by the army of Auburn men scattered throughout the United States.

Present Gridiron Rules Are O.K.

CHICAGO, Dec. 29.—There is little likelihood of any important change in the football rules for next season, according to indications Tuesday at the ninth annual convention of the Collegiate Athletic Association. The new rules committee, presided over by Dr. H. L. Williams, of Minnesota, suggested no material alterations and many of the college sports writers predicted that when the rules committee meets next spring no new rules will be adopted practically unchanged.

Water Camp, of Yale, attending the convention, discounted any idea of material amendment of the rules. "The present rules have developed a game which allows full scope for individual excellence in the player," he said. "They are well understood by the public, they are thoroughly understood by the players and the sports writers have grasped every detail. Under those circumstances there seems to me to be no good reason for any material change."

International Clubs Seek Wolverines' Services

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Dec. 29.—Two international football clubs, it became known here Tuesday, are seeking the services of Harry Wolverton, who managed the New York Americans in 1912. One is believed to be Richmond, Va., which is applying for a franchise. Another was one of the clubs in the Sacramento-San Jose in the Pacific Coast league last year.

Sport Briefs

O. L. Bakke won the ice marathon on the Rock river, regaining his title, or, perhaps, proving that he can come back.

Someone has invented a brand new golf club, but what we wanted for Christmas was a brand new way to use some grand old club.

Don McCarthy, of Springfield, Mass., ran a footrace Christmas, which was his last against his old enemy, the promoter and friend and foe. He fought to his end.

Charlie White boxed in a baggage car en route east, but it is significant that he didn't offer to box with the baggage man.

Why not a marathon between Freddie Welsh and Harry Lander, let each hold the title between thumb and forefinger and the one that holds longest to get both.

Three hours before he jumped back to his job, Walter Johnson gave out an interview, saying he would stick to the Feds, which goes to show that the players are not slow in picking up the ways of the magnates.

Speaking of seeing America, with Salt Lake, Portland and Los Angeles, the Coast league players will see most of it.

George Stallings' famous outfield shift becomes more difficult now he'll have to figure how to keep Whitted, Deane and Sherry Magee steady and Hoffman and Debutte had nothing on that trio.

Just wait until those moving picture producers who are going to promote sports for the pictures, get to bidding: bid to five Cy Falkenberg is first to jump to them.

Clark Griffith probably is sorry he didn't take two hours longer to Walter Johnson—he might have persuaded Walter to play to get into the park and pitch.

We suspect, however, that if Heinie Groh's name was Dominick O'Reilly, Cincinnati would listen to a word he said.

It is up to Connie Mack to issue a statement Book explaining why he can't handle his championship team.

The trouble with Colonel Ruppert, it seems, is that when he buys a ton of soap he insists upon getting 2,000 pounds of bills.

Billy Hale Thompson, wanted to be mayor of Chicago and the keynote of his platform is "encouragement of baseball in all sports." If you know Billy Hale Thompson's idea of baseball, sport you'll understand why the people cheered.

If the fans decide to declare themselves neutral the baseball war will end by Jan. 1.

Those skating authorities ought to professionalize our ice rinks. Heavens money on ice.

Eleven Plays Only One Gridiron Game in Atlanta Next Season

THE MAGNET

The MagNet

BY GRANTLAND RICE

"What was the greatest individual sporting achievement for the year?" queries K. L. H.

This is the easiest one yet. It was the stunt of Hank Gowdy in hitting for a greater number of bases than Baker, Collins, McInnis, Oldring and Murphy combined. Referring, of course, to the last world series.

Who originated the expression "world series?" asks another reader, who may or may not be gentle.

Offhand, we should say Hughie Jennings. After losing three of 'em in a row, they became the most serious affairs in his buoyant and scholarly young career.

ONLY ONE SUCH. "If I can land just one addition," says George Stallings, "I will win the pennant for the next five years."

We know who or whom George must mean, but we've decided not to tell. It might sound sacrilegious.

BALLADS OF BAD BABIES. Bobby Jackson wisely cried: Straight to where his grandma slept; Then he, after getting there, Nailed her two ears to the chair.

She exclaimed, "Why, bless my heart! Child, you gave me such a start."

Mary Jane, a comely maid, Set fire to her sister's braid; Set her mother cackles she said, "Sister's hair is turning red."

Oldsters in baseball are swiftly passing out. Their day is numbered. The game has slipped beyond them. This last season, for example, Old Sam Crawford only drove in 112 runs, which was only 15 more runs than Baker drove over, 20 more than Speaker and Collins and about 40 more than Cobb. It's tough the way the old boys are drifting back, for there was a time when Sam stood well enough in the Select Society of Swat or in the Brigade of Bing.

Here are two all-Americans you can't leave off any team, viz, Irvn S. Cobb and George M. Cohan. Their average, in their separate positions, is exactly 1,000 at each and every start.

Buying the Yankees has cut into Captain Tilt. Huston's winter fearfully. It's a good thing for him he didn't try to buy the Giants or the Braves.

THE CASE OF JOHNSON. If there is one soured-soup son of Swat who is busily engaged these days in kicking himself swiftly upon either ankle the monicker attached to him is "The Kid." He had his chance to trip the leg of a league and from town to town, the Kansas Canteen has earned a reputation of being a kale grabber without being able to grab the aforesaid kale.

Johnson, in short, which the way the old boys are drifting back, for there was a time when Sam stood well enough in the Select Society of Swat or in the Brigade of Bing.

FINANCIAL TWIST. A year ago Johnson was offered a vaudeville contract calling for $15,000. There is no hook in this. He had his chance to trip the leg of a league and from town to town, the Kansas Canteen has earned a reputation of being a kale grabber without being able to grab the aforesaid kale.

He follows this up by jumping to the Feds for more money and then jumping back for quite a deficit. If Johnson had grabbed that vaudeville offer and gone after all he could get from the Feds he would be at least $30,000 richer two years from now than he will be. And yet, having blown this coin, or rather the chance for it, he is still rated as a commercial soul through his recent actions and has lost the credit that he had piled up.

PRESENT STATUS. Johnson isn't the most commercial soul in baseball by several lengths. But as a financier he is all to the way. It is his fault that he has not only lost chances both for extra money, but stands a good show of being tied up in a lawsuit. For, unless his Washington contract—the original entry in a legal binding, he will be regulated by the Feds.

O YOU TELL! Sir, I have noticed several Harvard graduates over Yale in your column of late. Well, let the old dead slog. Out of 30 games fought to a finish, and to a decision, Yale has won 22 and Harvard 8. As between the two, Yale has a percentage of something over 700 and Harvard something under 300. It was about this time Harvard was winning a game or two. But it is still something to know that she can win every game played for the next thirteen years and still be back to Yale's total in Harvard affairs. This dispassionate statement of fact should detain some one for a while at least.

Records Broken At Indoor Meet. NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—Two records were broken and a third equalled at the National Junior Indoor Amateur Athletic union championships games in Brooklyn last night. E. D. Maurer, New York Athletic club, won the 220-yard dash in 33.1 seconds, clipping a second from the record.

W. H. Taylor, Illinois Athletic club, won the standing broad jump, distance 10 feet 8 inches, or 5 inches better than last year's record. D. S. Trenholm, Dartmouth, covered the 60-yard hurdle in 4.3 seconds, the record time set last year.

Shugrue Beats Charlie White In Hot Battle

Jersey City Boxer Had Margin Over Chicago Wizard in Seven of Ten Rounds—White Pulled Rally in the Eighth

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—Joe Shugrue, of Jersey City, outboxed Charlie White, of Chicago, in a ten-round bout at Madison Square Garden last night. Shugrue had the better of seven rounds.

Both men weighed in under 135 pounds at 5 o'clock and their ringside weights were: Shugrue, 133.14 lb., White, 129.14 lb.

It was a clean, fast fight. Shugrue forced the pace nearly all the way, while White in the early rounds was cool and seemingly confident. He met Shugrue's rushes with snappy left hooks and right counters.

Shugrue shot jab and jab to the face and White retaliated with left hooks and short right crosses, one of which cut Shugrue's nose in the opening round. The Jersey lad invariably had the better of hot mix-ups.

Although honors were even in the fourth, White stumbled off his balance and Shugrue caught him with a left swing in the stomach.

In the fifth, sixth and seventh Joe forced the fighting.

In the eighth the Chicago lad showed aggressiveness and sent in hard blows to the body as well as hooking right and left far back on the jaw. This was White's best round.

Shugrue kept up his jabbing tactics in the ninth and had the best of this session.

The final round brought fast work by both men. White landed swift left hooks to the face and also had the better of the night-fighting at which he was not so successful in previous rounds. He used both hands to advantage.

Cleveland Spiders To Train at Thomasville. THOMASVILLE, Ga., Dec. 30.—The Cleveland American association club will again do its spring training here in 1915. Information was received Tuesday by the local Georgia State league team officials that the association club would spend three weeks here, beginning March 10.

Rowland Releases William "Kid" Gleason. CHICAGO, Dec. 30.—William "Kid" Gleason, for three years adviser to James Callahan, former manager of the Chicago American league baseball team, was conditionally released by Callahan Tuesday.

Rowland, Callahan's successor, Tuesday, last, winter Gleason, it is said, was sought by the Federal manager of the Baltimore team, but he refused to sign.

Down at New Orleans, Johnny Doherty took Jack Adams by craft to the Giants. He may be retained, Bob Higgins is still on hand, and Johnny has young Higgins, picked up near the close of last season. If Adams is retained, Jack and Nobby Bob Higgins will doubtless do the backstopping for the Pels again.

At Mobile, Charlie Schmidt will find time to do most of the coaching by the Gulls, in spite of the fact that he will manage the team. Larry Brown may be held over as a supernumerary, but so long as Charlie keeps his health, there will be no need of a little rest over the team's prospects behind the bat.

At Chattanooga, Moore McCormick cleaned up both in his old outposts, Charlie Street was sold to Nashville, and Pat Graham was handed his release out.

At Nashville, Bill Schwartz has a big stock on hand just at present. He still retains Red Smith and Frank Gibson from last year's team and he has added Gabby Street. It is generally believed that Bill will cut loose from Gibson, and that Street and Smith will handle the curves and slants of Vol hurlers next year.

C. Molesworth will bank strongly on his struggling youngster, Wallace. Shot gun Wallace, they call him. Wallace was farmed out last spring but was recalled later in the season when the call was tied to Fred Dilger. He looked good enough in the closing days of the season, and will doubtless land first place. Walter Truesener goes back to the Braves, where he was acquired by Moles.

When Bob Allen, at Little Rock, Missouri, his material inherited from Montgomery, he will find three recoveries. These are Pat Donahue, Frank Gibbons and Grady Baker. One of these, of course, be turned arrier, unless it is decided to make an infielder out of Gibbons. Unless this is done, it looks like Pat will be moving on. Gibbons is a better catcher, and also a better hitter.

right. The Moose has already picked up two youngsters in Kitchens and Bettis both Texas leaguers during the past season. Kitchens is regarded as the best possibility for first string catcher, while Bettis will fight for the assistant's job with a youngster by the name of Augie who played with Salt Lake City last season.

Bris Lord will have George Schiel for first dependence at Memphis with a kid who was picked up by Mike Finn near the close of last season. But Bris will hardly be satisfied with the veteran Schiel as his best bet. In all probability the Chicks will have two new men on the receiving job by the time things get going well next spring.

At Nashville, Bill Schwartz has a big stock on hand just at present. He still retains Red Smith and Frank Gibson from last year's team and he has added Gabby Street. It is generally believed that Bill will cut loose from Gibson, and that Street and Smith will handle the curves and slants of Vol hurlers next year.

Details of Sale About Complete

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—Announcement of the sale of the New York American league club to Colonel Jacob Ruppert, of New York City, has been completed to be made today by Ban Johnson, president of the American league.

President Johnson said last night that he would have a definite announcement in the morning. He said that he means that the new owners will take charge, he would not assert, although he estimated that such a conclusion was natural since the efforts of the league have been toward that end for more than a month.

That James C. Price, a state house commissioner, may be the active head of the Yankees should Colonel Ruppert and Captain Houston assume control was an insistent rumor today.

Every time we get mad about the Mexicans firing across the American border we remember that Jack Johnson and his wife are threatening to cross their border, and scarcely blame them.

While Baker is a youngster and is expected to improve.

All told, two new men are due for the Crackcase, and a like number for the Lookouts. The Chicks may also drive some new receding entry. The Barons will get at least one new man, and the Pels and Gulls are likely to do the same. The Little Rock Travlers may stand pat, and Nashville will have one old one, and another new one, although an old one in the league.

When Bob Allen, at Little Rock, Missouri, his material inherited from Montgomery, he will find three recoveries. These are Pat Donahue, Frank Gibbons and Grady Baker. One of these, of course, be turned arrier, unless it is decided to make an infielder out of Gibbons. Unless this is done, it looks like Pat will be moving on. Gibbons is a better catcher, and also a better hitter.

Dumdums Found by Germans Won't Fit Rifles Allies Use

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Dec. 29.—State department officials have practically completed their investigation of charges by the German ambassador, Count Bernstorff, that dumdum bullets were being supplied from the United States to armies of the allies.

The department's investigators have reported that the samples of dumdum bullets submitted by the German ambassador as having been made in the United States would not fit any rifle being used by the allies.

State department officials also have been informed by an American diplomat back from Europe that he found no ground for charges that Belgians had been mutilated by German soldiers.
